UDHS Model UN Club Shines in TECHMUN

At 7:30 in the morning, on a cold Saturday in January, Mrs. Brubaker's Model UN Club hopped on a bus to Sicklerville, New Jersey. At TECHMUN, hosted by Camden County Technical Schools, the group represented actual countries, historical figures, and make-believe characters in debates with teams from many other schools. Zoe Hogue, a senior and second-year member of our group, was a chairperson for the UNCTAD, which discussed global monopolies in transportation. Torrence Hemingway (France) and Shuvomita Shuvro (Armenia) attended the DISEC discussion on how Social Media shapes the political debate. Time-traveling Roscoe Lannutti attended a historical discussion about the Ratification of the Constitution and Karma (Winter). Ringgold played King Bob-omb in the hypothetical Trial of Mario. The group will be going to Moorestown, NJ, to debate in the MOOMUN in February.
