Aronimink Home & School Association: May 11th Meeting Minutes

Meagan Rubino, President: Welcome to all those that are attending.

Mr. Rehak: It has been a big week, teachers have been boxing up and moving to new classrooms. The new addition should be done in June and starting Monday they will gut the old building. The class size should be about 20 per grade next year. They will have extra administrative help over the summer to get ready for the start of school.

Officer Reports:

1. President, Meagan Rubino

- Family Heritage Night -Mrs. King would like to thank the HSA for co-chairing the event and sponsoring the posters.
- May Day (Meagan on behalf of Martha Ford) There will be face painting, moon bounce and DJ. Chik-fil-a nuggets, sandwiches and pretzels will be sold. Kona Ice will bring a truck as well. Rehak- playground will be ready by Thursday. People are still needed to help.

2. Recording Secretary, Kary Heller: April meeting minutes are available for review; minutes accepted.

3. Ways & Means, LaurenBeth Signore

- Brother's did not send out fall check, will be combining a check for fall and spring. Next year, ways and means will need to stay on top of them.
- Rita's night June 2nd.

4. Treasurer, Ed Troy and Josh Signore:

- April was low key. There were May expenses for family heritage night, yearbook, running club, teacher luncheon and May Day.

Committee Reports:

- Teacher Luncheon (Kary)-went well
- 5th grade (Lauren Holloway) Each 5th grader is receiving a personalized sign, on May 25th there will be a bowling party at Sproul Lanes from 6-8 pm. Shoe rental, pizza and soda are included. Urban Air night is June 1st from 7-9pm. Will also be a water ice and pretzel party, probably after the 5th grade kick ball game, on the advice of Mr. Kee and Mrs. Woodbridge.

Old Business:

New Business:

- Moving Up (Rehak) It will be a 40 minute ceremony with awards and recognition for activities. Bring additional chairs.
